

Prayer Focus

March - June 2017

Making followers of Christ through media

FEBA Malawi

Rev. Amos Siyabu Phiri and some FEBA listeners.

MARCH

Wed 1 – FEBA Malawi is celebrating 26 years of service in Malawi – 18 years on shortwave and 8 years on FM. Thank God for those who gave their lives to Jesus Christ through listening to our programs.

Thu 2 – The team is thankful for the donations it received to reach the Yao people. Strong partnerships have empowered Rev. Amos Siyabu Phiri, National Director, and his team to carry out their Godly mission.

Fri 3 – FEBA Malawi distributes resources like Bibles, wind-up radios and Yao booklets to its listeners, which are impacting many lives. Give thanks to the Lord for providing the needed resources through donations.

Sat 4 – A group of listeners from Kachenga recently visited Rev. Amos at FEBA Malawi's office. "We're very grateful for seeing the producer of the 'Way of Life' program today, since he has the lifesaving message. We say thanks to God for using him on the 'Way of life' program."

FEBC Chinese Ministries

Sun 5 – WEEKLY SUMMARY: God has really blessed FEBC's Chinese ministry the past year. For example, the long-awaited program 'Faith Journey' was launched in 2016 for Uyghurs in Northern China. This program consist of 46 episodes, which were produced by believers from various Christian backgrounds and perspectives. Dedicate this week to joining us in giving thanks to God for FEBC China.

Mon 6 – "It was FEBC that first introduced me to the gospel. I thank you from the bottom of my heart." Praise God for testimonies like these!

Tue 7 – Liangyou Theological Seminary (LTS) is committed to meeting the needs of the churches in China, developing programs through multimedia, teaching biblical truths, building up the morale and faithfulness of missionary workers and volunteers, raising up healthy churches, glorifying our Lord Jesus Christ. Praise God for FEBC China's Liangyou Theological Seminary!

Wed 8 – Praise God for this student who wrote to FEBC China: “The LTS courses have helped me greatly. However, graduation is not the end of learning, but rather a fresh start. I must carry on with deeper learning and make continuous improvement.”

Thu 9 – Praise God that this year marks the 27th year of broadcasting the Gaweylon Tibetan Radio Program, which ministers to the Tibetan people living in southwest China, northern India and Bhutan.

Fri 10 – Tsetan is a businessman and he has been helping FEBC to distribute resources in Bhutan. “Thank you for the resources that you sent me. I am always happy to distribute them in my area.” Praise God for volunteers like Tsetan!

Sat 11 – “I know your broadcasts help others just like me turn away from their sins and follow the Lord. Thank you so much!” Thank God for this listener!

良友圣经学院

LIANGYOU THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY (On Radio and Internet)

FEBA India

Sun 12 – WEEKLY SUMMARY: India is the 7th largest country in the world and the 2nd largest in population.

1 652 languages and dialects are spoken there; FEBA India is now reaching 14 of those languages. In spite of persecution of Christians, significant numbers are turning to Christ. Join us this week as we thank God for FEBA India!

Mon 13 – “The commencement of the new schedule brings new challenges and exciting opportunities. Our challenge is to retain our regular listeners and increase the number of new listeners. The emphasis is on producing quality programmes and addressing the needs of every listener.” Pray that God will bless this new schedule and thank God for innovation amongst the FEBA India team.

Tue 14 – “The speaker box is an excellent tool to evangelize and make disciples of people. We thank God for the opportunity to minister and encourage this remote people group.” Thank God with our Indian team.

Wed 15 – “Our programs are specially designed to suit our audience in their own culture and environment.” Thank God for each letter, phone call, email and text message, which is responded to personally.

Thu 16 – Thank God that almost 300 million Indians can hear the Gospel of Christ through FEBA’s ministry!

Fri 17 – “As a result of my blindness, I lost all contact with other people. Radio became my only friend and hope. I tune into FEBA radio and listen to God’s word regularly, this helped me grow spiritually in my intimacy with God.” Praise God for this listener.

Sat 18 – “I have been listening to your broadcasts for the last 30 years. It has given me strength and comfort, it encourages me to carry on in the midst of problems.” Thank God for Christians across the world who are loyal listeners of FEBA and FEBC.

FEBC Indonesia

Sun 19 – WEEKLY SUMMARY: Last year an FEBC team visited a trash dump and found an isolated and forgotten Muslim community living amongst the trash. The trash dump is located on the outskirts of Tangerang, Indonesia. Over 600 people work here each day, and 50 people permanently live here in homes made of plastic, tin and pieces of plywood. They are poor, Muslim, and without access to the gospel. Thank God for FEBC Indonesia, who reaches out to these people.

Mon 20 – Please pray for children, like Anissa (8), who attend school until they’re 12. When they turn 12, they have to start sorting trash to help provide for their families.

Tue 21 – Praise God for FEBC Indonesia’s staff, who distributed radios to these people so they could hear the gospel broadcasts in their mother tongue for the first time.

Wed 22 – Praise God for Heartline FM who hosts Radio Pars, the only Farsi-language program in Indonesia, which reaches 2 000+ Iranian refugees living in the region.

Thu 23 – Thank God for the programmers of Radio Pars, who are volunteers and Iranian refugees themselves, who do the work from their desire to see the gospel reach the hearts of their fellow refugees.

Fri 24 – Praise God for the pastor in Indonesia, who wrote to FEBC's YASKI station: "My prayers are for YASKI to continue supporting evangelists in remote areas throughout Indonesia."

Radio Pars

Sat 25 – A listener wrote to FEBC's Indonesian broadcast station after she received a radio: "I can now listen to the Lord every day. This radio will change my life." Praise God for the opportunity to distribute radios to those in need.

FEBC Cambodia

Sun 26 – WEEKLY SUMMARY: In 2016, FEBC Cambodia distributed more than 300 VLM (Voice of Love Mobile) boxes in the rural areas on the border of Thailand and Vietnam and also in Cambodia. Pray that the people may receive truth in the Word of God. Thank God with us for the opportunity to distribute radios and speaker boxes in Cambodia, to enable many more people to listen to the gospel broadcasts.

Mon 27 – Praise God for the family seminars FEBC Cambodia conducted throughout Cambodia. Pray that those families may live in peace and harmony with each other and be witnesses of Christ in their communities.

Tue 28 – FEBC Cambodia launched a relay station in Kompong Thom province. Praise God for this new station and pray that the broadcasts will reach many Cambodians.

Wed 29 – "Even though I can't read or write, I have been growing in the faith of Jesus by listening to this FM, it has transformed my heart and has helped me to put my faith into actions." Thank God that through radio, the illiterate may also learn the Good News.

Thu 30 – FEBC Cambodia has joined hands with One Hope Ministry under the Assemblies of God producing children’s programming. Thank God for the opportunity to minister to the children.

Fri 31 – Praise the Lord that FEBC Cambodia is also now in partnership with Shalom Cambodia Ministry. Pray that their partnership may expand the Kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ.

APRIL

Sat 1 – “Radio has helped me, but what really affected me was the Word of God. By listening, I received hope.” Praise God for testimonies like this one!

Sopheary Hem, National Director of FEBC Cambodia and a listener receiving a 3-band radio.

FEBC Kazakhstan

into 2 groups. There is the Islamic world, the dar al-Islam, meaning “the house of peace” and the non-Islamic world, the dar al-harb, meaning “the house of war.” This perspective claims “peace” is accomplished once the non-Islamic enemy has been conquered and converted to Islam. Kazakhstan, a nation of 16.7 million people, strongly holds to this worldview. Thank God for the change FEBC has brought to this nation the last few years and please pray with us for the work that still needs to be done.

Sun 2 – WEEKLY SUMMARY: One of the astonishing worldviews of the Muslim faith is that the world is divided Mon 3 – “I was the happiest person when I got to know my Saviour, Jesus.

However, within a year or so I ran into some problems. Your programs help me to stand strong in Christ." Praise God that both believers and non-believers are motivated by FEBC's programs.

Tue 4 – FEBC Kazakhstan was officially incorporated in June 2005 with the hope of establishing local FM stations in 2 major cities: Almaty and Astana. Praise God for what He has done through FEBC Kazakhstan for the last 12 years!

Wed 5 – Approximately 1 572 listeners call, email, or text FEBC Kazakhstan and 11 552 visit the web annually. Thank God for this response from Kazakh listeners.

Thu 6 – At the main studio in Almaty, a local program is produced in the Kazakh language, which is intended mainly for the Internet broadcast. Thank God that, although they struggle to obtain an FM licence, they're still able to reach the people with the Internet broadcast.

Fri 7 – Thank God for Rev. Nurlan Kanatbayev and other broadcasters. Pray that God will give them wisdom in their talk-shows as they present the truth and share Christ with the people of Kazakhstan.

Sat 8 – While many Kazakh Christians face persecution on a societal level, it often begins within their own families. Please pray for these Christians in Kazakhstan.

FEBC Kyrgyzstan

Sun 9 – WEEKLY SUMMARY: On 16 October 2016 at 1pm, FEBC's newest radio station in Toktogul, Kyrgyzstan went on the air to an estimated 200 000 people. This was just in time, as just hours after the signal went online, it began to snow on top of the 8100 foot mountain where the new station was located. The FEBC team raced down the mountain, just making it back to the capital before the roads became impassable. Praise God for His perfect timing!

Mon 10 – The new relay station in Toktogul will enable our gospel-based programs to reach people in a region with only a few Christian witnesses.

Thank God for this station and please pray that listeners will tune in and listen.

Tue 11 – Please pray and thank God for Aisada, in Bishkek, as she hosts a talk show for mothers. In traditional Muslim nations, like Kyrgyzstan, mothers are often overlooked, even though they have a great impact on society by raising their children.

Wed 12 – A listener wrote: “I recently found out that my husband is having a relationship with someone else. My happy life simply came to an end and my friends suggest a divorce. After listening to your broadcast, something has happened in my heart.” Pray that this young woman continues to listen and thank God for programs that touch hearts and teach Biblical truth.

Thu 13 – One of the broadcasters shared the following: “It is a joy to host the morning talk show. Most listeners struggle with many challenges. My goal is to lift them up in the Name of our Lord and help them look to God. Quite often they say they don’t understand God. However, the Good News about Jesus is changing their way of thinking about Him.” Praise God for good news!

Fri 14 – Thank God for Nargiza, who hosts the program Good to Know in Bishkek. “I use my interviews with influential Christians as a non-threatening way to introduce Christian concepts to our Muslim listeners,” she explained.

Sat 15 – “It’s exciting to see Christians reach out with the powerful message of Christ through radio. Most people are still unaware of God’s mercy and grace.” This message came to us from a local pastor in Kyrgyzstan. Please pray that people in this Muslim-dominant culture will hear the Word of God and discover Jesus’ unconditional love for them.

FEBC Myanmar

Sun 16 – WEEKLY SUMMARY: Thirty years ago, a headmistress of a school in Myanmar listened to an FEBC broadcast for the first time. She kept listening ever since and eventually gave her heart to Jesus. When she retired 10 years ago, she began tutoring refugee children on the Thai/Myanmar border. She not only assists them with their reading and writing, but also shares Christ with them. She is only one of the people who were impacted by FEBC’s broadcasts that later went on to influence the lives of many, thanks to God!

Mon 17 – “Even though we live far away from any town, we are happy to be able to still hear the Gospel. We pray that you’ll continue to broadcast to us.” Thank God for the FEBC team in Myanmar and for the listeners who tune in.

Tue 18 – Please pray for FEBC Myanmar’s National Director, Yankee Tun, whose health has been challenging, and his wife, Sanda, who works alongside her husband. Thank God for what they’ve accomplished in Myanmar.

Wed 19 – “My son and I have regularly listened to your radio programs. But now our radio is broken and we can no longer listen. Still, we thank God for the booklets that you sent, which teach us about God.” Thank God for innovative ways to reach those who don’t have radios.

Thu 20 – “We received a radio from FEBC on Father’s Day. We are very poor but we praise God for our daily living. Pray that we will live a godly family life.” Thank God for the thousands of radios we could distribute so far. Please pray for funds to buy more.

Fri 21 – Praise God for this message from a listener in Myanmar: “We live in a village where everyone was once Buddhist. No one had ever heard of Jesus Christ. But now we have heard through FEBC Myanmar. I received Jesus as my Saviour because of your broadcasts. We’re so thankful you brought us to God.”

Sat 22 – “We received a radio as a present and when I first heard your program, I felt I had learned some really good lessons for my life. Please continue to broadcast them.” Praise God for testimonies like this one. Pray that these broadcasts will touch many more hearts.

FEBC Korea

Sun 23 – WEEKLY SUMMARY: Initially, FEBC Korea was established to reach North Korea, China, Russia and Mongolia at a time when missionaries weren’t allowed into these countries. Now we have 12 AM and FM stations. Last year FEBC Korea celebrated its 60th anniversary. FEBC Korea has grown into a major Christian radio network, broadcasting in 13 cities in South Korea. Thank God for this major and effective ministry. Pray that God will bless the staff, their families and their fellow countrymen. Please also pray for the work they are doing to reach the people in North Korea.

Mon 24 – Praise God for the monumental event held at the Yeonmudae Military Church in South Korea, where over 4 400 new South Korean army troops were baptised on 6 August 2016, making it the country’s largest-ever baptism ceremony.

Tue 25 – Praise God that the Korean government approved our request for a new FM radio license on Jeju Island, where we hope to share the gospel with a population of 580 000.

Wed 26 – A listener in South Korea writes: “I own a small service business and I want to share the gospel with my customers. I always tune my radio to your station, but was worried the Christian programs might offend some people. No one has complained. In fact, many have thanked me for the good messages they are hearing." Praise God that this shopkeeper is eager to share Christ's love with his customers.

Thu 27 – The South Korean ministry now has 12 radio stations scattered throughout the country, reaching hundreds of thousands of listeners. One of them recently wrote: "I have suffered from depression for the last 23 years and came to know FEBC Korea when I was about to commit suicide. One day I fell and hurt myself. While resting, I fell asleep listening to FEBC and had a dream of being healed from my pain. The next morning when I awoke I really was healed! I am so grateful for God's mercy and would like to make a love offering to the ministry. Thank you, FEBC!"

Fri 28 – A listener from Korea wrote: "My younger brother received Jesus Christ as his Saviour through your ministry. He drives for a living and tunes the radio to FEBC whenever he works." Radio remains enormously important as a means to reach people. Praise God for this resource that reaches people in remote locations as well as crowded mega-cities.

Sat 29 – "Your broadcasts are full of life," writes a listener from Korea. "I tune in 24 hours a day, always thankful for your programs." Please pray that FEBC's broadcasts heard in 46 countries and 105 languages will continue to lead people to the Lord, the only One who has the power to change a heart.

On 6 August 2016, over 4 400 new South Korean army troops were baptised at the Yeonmu-dae Military Church in South Korea! FEBC's President, Ed Cannon and FEBC Korea's National Director, Dr. Billy Kim, were among those who baptised these troops.

FEBA Pakistan

Sun 30 – WEEKLY SUMMARY: In even more opportunities to expand to Pakistan, an FM expansion project are four new cities in the coming months. under way in 3 cities, and there are Praise the Lord for these developments, as just 2 years ago FEBC Pakistan was dangerously close to going off the air. Listener feedback continues to be very encouraging, often praising the program’s educational content and use of reputable speakers to discuss important social issues.

Sammy Lyall

MAY

Mon 1 – After over 30 years of service with FEBC, Sammy Lyall, National Director of FEBA Pakistan, has retired and handed over the reins to his successor, Saleem Shahzad. Pray that Saleem will follow in Sammy’s exemplary footsteps to reach many for Christ.

Tue 2 – “We are listening to your programs very keenly as you talk about love, peace and harmony. Lessons from the Holy Bible refresh our souls and strengthen us in our daily life. Your team is doing wonderful work in radio programs; please greet them from the core of our hearts. Your teachings have influenced us very positively, keep up this good work.”

Wed 3 – “I really appreciate your broadcasts that have guided me towards Jesus Christ. I’ve been listening to your programs for a long time and have now accepted Jesus as my personal Saviour. I’m thankful to you for showing me the way!”

Thu 4 – “By the grace of God, my family is now all followers of Christ. I have a vision to serve the Lord throughout my life. Since there is no church or pastor nearby, my other Christian friends have planned to build a church in our village. Your prayers are much needed for this important task.”

Fri 5 – “I have been a regular listener of FEBA’s broadcasts in Pakistan for many years. I always appreciated the way your programs guide us to meet our social and spiritual needs.”

Sat 6 – “I heard you speak my language, so I stopped to listen. I was hearing for the first time truths I had never heard before: forgiveness, eternal life and a loving God.”

FEBC Philippines

Sun 7 – WEEKLY SUMMARY: Praise God for FEBC’s 6 powerful transmitters located in the Philippines that air the shortwave broadcasts to Southeast Asia and Central Asia in 45 languages. Only God knows how many millions of people are reached through these broadcasts, and we're grateful for every one!

Mon 8 – Please know that your support and prayers make our programs possible, and the programs, in turn, impact the lives of listeners, such as this one, who wrote: "God is never blind to my tears or silent to my pain. I know He is watching over me. Listening to FEBC gives me assurance."

Tue 9 – "We are enjoying our work here in the store while listening to your programs. The praise songs to God encourage us. That's why our day is never complete without your broadcasts. Thank you!"

Wed 10 – "Thank you for reminding me that God is with me, especially during times when I feel desperate. Thank you for your programs!"

Thu 11 – "I tie the radio around my waist so I can bring it with me wherever I go. Friends kid me by saying the radio is like a twin sister to me as we are inseparable. Lots of changes have been happening in my life since I started listening to your programs."

Fri 12 – "Through your station, I found the answer to my problems. Your station is such a blessing. I've received much encouragement, for which I am thankful."

One of the broadcaster from the new children's program in the Philippines.

Sat 13 – "Your program 'Straight to the Heart', gives me happiness, inspiration and hope. It helps me fight life's challenges. Thank you for the advice you give."

FEBC Russian Ministries

Sun 14 – WEEKLY SUMMARY: Forced by the government to close its AM stations in St. Petersburg and Moscow, FEBC Russia is now re-structuring and reaching several million listeners through its online ministry. Listeners are acclimatizing to the change and using their smart phone apps and our online broadcasts to tune into our programs. Thank the Lord for technology that enables FEBC to spread the Good News, despite severe opposition!

Oleg*, a blind broadcaster at FEBC Russia in Moscow.

Mon 15 – Praise God for the privilege to share the Good News of salvation. FEBC Russia is still making a huge difference to the lives of many listeners, as they testify in their responses to the station.

Tue 16 – A listener from Moscow writes: “My mom and I listen to FEBC broadcasts on the Internet. Sometimes we re-listen your programs and read your blogs; then we pray for people who ask for prayers. We love FEBC’s programs and we tell people about salvation through Jesus.”

Wed 17 – “Hello, dear friends! Because of your broadcasts, I repented of all my sins and have been baptised. Listening to your programs, I am growing spiritually and learning how to follow Jesus and serve Him. Thank you very much for your amazing sermons! Please pray that I will be strong in my faith.”

Thu 18 – “Thank you, FEBC, for your broadcasts; they led me to the Lord. My husband is a non-believer and has problems at work. They didn’t pay him for 2 months. We have three little children and have to make our rent payments. Please pray that my husband will come to faith in God.”

Fri 19 – This note came from a listener in Israel who tunes in to our Russian programs: “Hello, FEBC radio! I listen to you on my smartphone everywhere... at home, work and in my car. I live in Israel and desperately need your broadcasts here. It helps me and encourages me every day. Thank you so much!”

Sat 20 – Please pray for an opportunity that recently emerged to expand our ministry into Moldova, a Russian-speaking country between Ukraine and Romania. Pray for wisdom as leadership explores this opportunity to share the gospel with a nation of 3.5 million people.

FEBC Thailand

Sun 21 – WEEKLY SUMMARY: Thailand is a country with a very small Christian population amongst the 68 million people, but the church is growing! Over 37 000 people are enrolled in FEBC's Bible Correspondence Course in Thailand, and many write to tell us just how much the program has impacted their lives. Praise God with us this week as we celebrate these testimonies from all over Thailand.

Mon 22 – “Ever since I received the Bible Correspondence Course, I have been determined to read the Bible several times each day. This has given me a true understanding of salvation. As a result, I became aware of my sin and prayed that God would forgive me and come into my life.”

Tue 23 – “Ever since I studied the Bible lessons, it has helped me to understand the Bible so much more until I decided to receive Jesus Christ as my Saviour. I know that everything I have received is God's will for me and He has given this good opportunity to me.”

Wed 24 – “To the FEBC Team – I have received your letter and I am so very happy about it. I am studying the Bible Correspondence Course and have finished all three courses with 6 lessons each. Sometimes when I feel discouraged I read God's Word and pray. It gives me strength and courage to live my life believing the Lord is walking alongside me. May God bless each one of you in the Bible team.”

Thu 25 – “Greetings to all who make the Heart Friend program! Do you know that I am so very proud that I have been able to persevere and do the Bible Correspondence Course lessons up to lesson 6 now! I am very taken with God who gives us a good New Life and helps me to go ahead into the future with this program and all of you.”

Fri 26 – “I came to know the Lord in 2014 by going to worship together with others. It became my habit and I have studied the Bible some too. Then I started to do the Bible Correspondence Course. This helps me to understand the Bible so much more. Praise God for leading me to believe and know Him and leading me to understand the Lessons.”

Sat 27 – “I believed in Jesus Christ for some years and now I am serving the Lord in a local Church. I thank you for every lesson which is a blessing to me and is helping me to have a stronger relationship with God. I also use these lessons to be a blessing in teaching new Christians in our Church. I want to thank each one of you. May God receive the honour for what you do.”

FEBC Vietnam

Sun 28 – WEEKLY SUMMARY: Vietnam is one of the few remaining Communist countries in the world, and it's here that FEBC has a vibrant ministry, growing each year. We're grateful for new technology such as speaker boxes and TV boxes that deliver the gospel to thousands who might not otherwise hear. Pray that God's Word will spread far and wide in this Southeast Asian nation.

Mon 29 – In a country where only 1.6% of the population is Christian, we're so grateful for this response from a listener in Vietnam: "I am one of your many faithful listeners. I thank God and thank you, FEBC, for your teaching, which has been a great help in my faith, bringing me closer to the Lord. I'm worshipping at a small rural church and your teachings and Bible lessons are much needed by all of us. Thank you!"

Tue 30 – "I'm very happy to write this letter to you," writes a Hmong listener from Vietnam. "I listen to your programs. Even though I can't see you, hearing God's Word from you has changed my life. I accepted Jesus as my personal Saviour. Please pray for me and other Hmong believers to have faith and be strong in the Lord. Thank you, FEBC, for sending us the Good News."

Wed 31 – A Mien listener from Vietnam recently wrote: "I heard the Good News from my Hmong wife five years ago and accepted Jesus as my personal Saviour. My life changed when I met God. I'm very happy to tell others to believe in God, but some people tell me if I don't have government permission, they will arrest me. Please pray for my safety."

JUNE

Thu 1 – "Praise God! I'm so happy to be writing to you. Thank you, FEBC, for sending us the Good News. I listen to your radio programs, which is how I learned the Word of God. I go everywhere in Vietnam to tell others about Jesus' love. Many Hmong have become believers. This is why the government arrested and fined me. However, I praise the Lord that I was saved and now serve God for my people.”

Fri 2 – “We listen to your programs through a speaker box,” writes a listener from Vietnam. “It’s so clear and easy to hear; it’s like heaven for me.” Pray that many more will be reached through our speaker boxes, which has been immensely effective in Vietnam.

Sat 3 – “I thank God that He chose you to send His important work to us and save us from Satan’s hand. Our souls were saved; we praise God for our new lives. Thank you so much!” God has done a mighty work in the hearts of the Hmong, bringing hundreds of thousands to faith through FEBC broadcasts.

Vietnam is still one of the countries with the most persecution of Christians in the world. Please pray for all Christians living there.

FEBC Mongolia

Sun 4 – WEEKLY SUMMARY: The FEBC team at Wind FM, FEBC Mongolia’s main station, has long produced programs that give Biblical insight on how to raise a Godly family. In addition to the existing 10 stations, the FEBC Mongolia team has been praying that God would open doors to launch new stations in other parts of the country. Three provinces in the easternmost part of the country are being explored. Thank the Lord for blessing FEBC’s mission in Mongolia!

Mon 5 – “Your programs are like a life coach for my family. Currently, we have no opportunity to attend a church. However, every weekend, we get into our car and turn on the radio. Our car becomes our church and the radio preacher becomes our pastor.”

Tue 6 – “One night I was listening to your programs. Tears suddenly filled my eyes as I understood that I was hearing the truth. Love and peace come from the mighty God who created us. My life has definitely changed since I came to the Lord. I even help out as a volunteer with FEBC, which is God’s blessing.”

Wed 7 – “I know how valuable it is to hear God’s Word. When I listen to FEBC’s Wind FM station, my car becomes my church. Your radio programs heal my mind and spirit.”

Thu 8 – “During my lunch hour, I often listen to your Bible study on the radio. When I listen, I open my Bible. It’s so awesome reading and listening to God’s Word.”

Fri 9 – “One day I turned on the radio and somebody was talking about the Bible. After listening for a while, I began to understand how to make better decisions about my family. I also decided to go to church. Thank you for your ministry. We have nothing but a radio, but I have learned a lot from it.”

Sat 10 – “All of the changes in my family have been the result of listening to FEBC’s station. I have been listening for three years now; I always feel like the broadcaster is talking directly to me. When I’m sad, the radio says ‘joy.’ When I’m angry, the radio says ‘peace.’ The atmosphere in my family is now better than I ever imagined. Thank you!”

FEBC Japan

Sun 11 – WEEKLY SUMMARY: Christianity comprises only 2% of the 127 million who live in Japan, and that includes both Catholics and Protestants. Part of the prejudice against Christianity is based on the perception that it is a Western religion, which does not fit in with the tradition-based Japanese culture. FEBC Japan produces radio programs from its studios in Tokyo, Japan – which means FEBC is the only Christian broadcasting company in all of Japan. Praise God for this ministry that has been going strong for the last 65 years!

Mon 12 – Praise God for FEBC Japan’s church/pastor visitation project, which involves staff visiting churches all over Japan and encouraging people who tune into their broadcasts.

Tue 13 – “Thank you very much for reading my letter on your program, ‘Keiko’s Mail Bag’, and giving me a clear guidance. I have recorded that particular program and kept listening to it repeatedly.” Praise God for creative programmers and broadcasters.

Wed 14 – Praise God for the more than 4 000 listeners who call, email, or text the offices in Japan each year.

Thu 15 – Thank God for this grateful listener: “Thank you so much for this wonderful program. I had no interest in Christianity whatsoever, but the content of your program touched my heart.”

Fri 16 – Since 1980, FEBC Japan has offered a Bible Correspondence Course to listeners. Thank God for the more than 300 listeners' letters they receive monthly.

Sat 17 – "How I appreciate your radio broadcast and recent letter. I was so encouraged I've gained the vitality to live. Every day I pour out my heart in prayer. I decided to pray the Lord's Prayer every day and try to believe in God." Praise God for this listener's life!

FEBA UK

Sun 18 – WEEKLY SUMMARY: FEBC International's office in Worthing, UK – known locally as FEBA UK – broadcasts programs in Africa, the Middle East and India. Bob Chambers leads the team of 25, who manages 6 support offices around the world. Thank the Lord for the work they are doing in forming strategic partnerships and raising funds to broadcast the gospel through unstoppable airwaves.

Mon 19 – The team in remote and rural Central Asia are producing a new series of broadcasts which deals with issues faced by women in the local context. Praise God for this opportunity and pray that female follow-up workers from this people group will step forward.

Tue 20 – Give thanks that several fellowships are using our Central Asian partner's audio material to help lead worship and grow the church. There are even several churches which have started up as a result of our partner's work. Praise God!

Wed 21 – Bangladesh is currently stable, but terrorist attacks are still a possibility. Please pray for peace. Also, give thanks for a recent listeners' conference, at which 9 people said their view of Jesus had changed significantly as a result of attending.

Thu 22 – Pray for the radio team promoting non-violent responses to the current political crisis in Burundi. There is potential for refresher training for the team; pray that this will happen soon. Pray also for the team's families – in particular their safety – and for peace in Burundi.

Fri 23 – Pray for the Karanda Mission Hospital Radio project in Zimbabwe. Give thanks for the completion of the studio and ward speaker system. Please pray for wisdom for the team as they try to strike a balance between health-based programming and Christian content.

Sat 24 – Radio Wimbe’s, in Mozambique, new station manager has now started in the role. Please pray for Farida and the board as the station moves into its next phase of development.

FEBC Ukraine

Sun 25 – WEEKLY SUMMARY: Great strides are being taken in Ukraine. Earlier this year, a broadcast centre was established in Kiev, the capital, allowing FEBC to minister to the people of Ukraine struggling through a very difficult period in their history. FEBC also has 3 different smart phone apps to reach different segments of Ukrainian society, as well as offering our broadcasts through the Internet.

Mon 26 – “Thanks to your broadcasts, I repented all of my sins and accepted Jesus as my personal Saviour. After that, I became a different person. I’m still learning how to live a holy life from your programs and the Bible. My relatives are non-believers and want nothing to do with me since becoming a Christian. Please pray for them.”

Tue 27 – “As our country is going through the biggest challenge of our generation, we need the voice of reason, morality, and love in our city,” writes Tatyana, a young Christian from Odessa. “FEBC is that voice. We need you here, friends.”

Wed 28 – Galina writes: “Your programs are so powerful and so needed in Ukraine today. As we go through a very difficult time in our history as a country, we need to know that God loves us...”

Thu 29 – Andrey from Ukraine writes: “I minister to blind people and your broadcasts are the best way to bring them the Good News. Thank you, friends, for your programs that transform listeners’ lives. Several people have already accepted Jesus. Please pray that many of them will be saved.”

Fri 30 – “Thank you very much, dear friends, for your amazing programs. I am blind and need your programs every day. I became a Christian because of your broadcasts. Please pray for my relatives who are far from God.”

FEBA Radio SA (member of FEBC International)

P.O. Box 26270
GEZINA, 0031
SOUTH AFRICA

683 8th Ave
Mayville
PRETORIA

 +27 12 335-5708/335-5764
 info@febaradio.co.za

FEBA Radio South Afrca/@FebaRadosa/Feba RadioSA
www.febaradio.co.za

NPO registered under Sec. 21 of the Companies Act (nr 1997/005938/08)