FEBA Radio SA's Prayer Missionaries

Together in Prayer

November 2026

Monday 2 November: FEBC's ministry is strengthened by effective collaboration with local churches in each country. This is all the more important in places like Japan, where believers often lack support in their immediate environments. Pray for strong working relationships between FEBC Japan and local churches that will bear abundant and lasting fruit.

Tuesday 3 November: Praise God for giving His children new life through the Holy Spirit. A listener in Japan shares: "When I heard the words 'Jesus died for us', something amazing happened to my heart. I realised that 'Jesus died for me'. I'm alive at this moment because Jesus gave me life!"

Wednesday 4 November: "For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day" (John 6:40 ESV). Pray that FEBC Japan's programs will lead listeners to eternal life in Christ.

Thursday 5 November: The FEBC Japan team is undergoing a season of change. Pray that God will send the right people to serve as leaders and broadcasters. Pray that the existing team will trust and wait on the Lord, and that He will grant them the necessary wisdom and strength to reach the unreached with the gospel.

Friday 6 November: FEBC China continues to experience significant challenges in its online ministry, but the team continues to work and trust in God's provision. They have started creating online spaces where believers can safely engage with each other. Pray that God's name will be glorified through every challenge and that He will bless online gatherings with His presence.

Saturday & Sunday 7-8 November: It is time for FEBA Radio SA's Christmas Radio Project! Every year, we raise funds specifically for radios and audio Bibles to be sent to a specific region. Last year's project funded a consignment for Sudan and this year's project is raising funds for Mali, Niger, and Chad. These countries have an average adult literacy rate below 35%, as well as very limited internet access, so radio is the perfect medium for people to receive and study God's Word. Pray that the Lord will provide what FEBA needs to reach listeners in Mali, Niger, and Chad with the gospel.

Monday 9 November: Praise God for His work in Mozambique! In die last week of September, FEBA Mozambique gathered with listeners and volunteers to pray for FEBA staff, leaders and supporters. Eight Muslim women came to Christ at the event. Pray for continued blessing on FEBA Mozambique's work and ask that our staff and listeners will remain faithful to God's Word.

Tuesday 10 November: "I am always impressed by the details and quality of the sermons on KanuYah FM. Of course, I am more impressed by the greatest miracle of life, the resurrection, as I listen to the story. Anytime I am away from home, I carry my portable radio around in order not to miss KanuYah FM's programs." Praise God for His powerful work through FEBA Mali!

Wednesday 11 November: "In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace" (Ephesians 1:7 ESV). Pray that the ears and hearts of listeners in the Sahel will be opened to the Good News where FEBA broadcasts it.

Thursday 12 November: FEBA Sudan has experienced a tumultuous year, with broadcasting interrupted by tribal conflict and extreme weather, but the Lord has faithfully protected our staff. Pray that He will provide the physical, mental, and spiritual resources to continue proclaiming the gospel and that He will prepare people's hearts to receive it.

Friday 13 November: Malawi and Mozambique suffered terrible flood damage earlier this year, with some broadcasters and listeners among those who lost their homes. Please pray for God's protection over FEBA's staff, listeners, and radio stations during the upcoming rainy season. Pray that His name will be glorified through FEBA's work in these countries.

Saturday & Sunday 14-15 November: FEBC is working to improve one of its radio stations in western Ukraine, where the staff will be safer than in Kyiv. Attacks on the capital have grown more frequent and deadly. As the country enters another winter, its energy supply has become a prime target, leaving people without power for heating. The FEBC Ukraine team desperately needs prayer. Please pray that the Lord will have mercy on them and their listeners, that FEBC's programs will bring comfort, and that believers will shine as lights in the darkness.

Monday 16 November: Pray for Eduard, the director of FEBC Ukraine, and his team as they continue to share the joy and peace that are found in Christ. They continue to face grief and fear in their personal lives. Some staff members have relatives in Russian captivity. Pray that their faith and strength will be renewed each day.

Tuesday 17 November: Svitlana, a listener in Ukraine, shared, "My husband was drafted, and then I lost contact with him. My life became a nightmare—waiting, thinking, worrying, imagining the worst. Your programs brought me to church. That's where I found Christ. And that's why I'm still standing today." Pray that she will be reunited with her husband and that others like her will find the same strength in Christ.

Wednesday 18 November: "Make me to know your ways, O Lord; teach me your paths. Lead me in your truth and teach me, for you are the God of my salvation; for you I wait all the day long" (Psalm 25:4-5 ESV). Pray that FEBC Ukraine will persevere in the knowledge that He who promised is faithful.

Thursday 19 November: The war in Ukraine has brought darkness that only the gospel can vanquish. As people lose loved ones, flee their homes, and live with the daily dread of attacks, pray that they will hear FEBC Ukraine's message and turn to the Lord. Pray that the gospel will stay on air until all in Ukraine have heard.

Friday 20 November: The young people of Ukraine have sacrificed normal childhood because of the war. FEBC Ukraine produces programs and hosts gatherings to let them know that they have a heavenly Father who loves them. Pray that the Lord will walk with the youth of Ukraine in a special way through FEBC's programs.

Saturday & Sunday 21-22 November: South Korea is facing a serious mental health crisis, with a suicide rate that is among the highest in the world. Rising living costs and the ongoing tension with North Korea only add to the strain. FEBC Korea broadcasts on 13 stations and 14 relay stations, keeping listeners company with encouragement steeped in the gospel. Its programs not only draw nonbelievers to Christ but also inspire lukewarm Christians to refresh their commitment to the Lord. Pray that FEBC Korea's gospel broadcasts will bring the Light to dark thoughts and draw lost sheep to their Shepherd.

Monday 23 November: FEBC Korea's prayer programs often receive feedback from listeners whose prayers have been answered. In a country where loneliness is rife, people draw comfort and strength from the knowledge that someone is praying for them. Pray that FEBC Korea's programs will also introduce nonbelievers to the God who hears and answers prayer.

Tuesday 24 November: "I had been anxious about [my surgery], but it felt as though God, who knows my situation, was comforting me and giving me peace through the prayers offered through FEBC Korea. Now I am able to entrust the entire process to God and await the surgery with a thankful heart." Praise the God of all comfort!

Wednesday 25 November: "I know, O Lord, that the way of man is not in himself, that it is not in man who walks to direct his steps" (Jeremiah 10:23 ESV). While the world tells people to find their strength within, FEBA points them to the true Source. Pray that those listeners who hear God's voice will not harden their hearts.

Thursday 26 November: North Korea is widely regarded as the most dangerous place to be a Christian. The state views Christianity as treason. FEBC Korea's gospel broadcasts to North Korea, which are produced and presented by North Korean defectors, air for 18 hours a day and cover the entire country. Pray that every broadcast will kindle and strengthen faith in listeners.

Friday 27 November: Pray for FEBC Korea's director, Daniel, and his team as they prepare for the Christmas season. While Christmas is celebrated in South Korea, most people do not associate it with Christ. Pray that FEBC Korea's Christmas programs and celebrations will introduce listeners to the true reason for Christmas and the joy that is found in Him alone.

Saturday & Sunday 28-29 November: Since 2021, FEBC Thailand has organised the "Give with Love" Christmas campaign, and every year it has grown bigger. FEBC works with churches and volunteers across its provinces to host gatherings where underprivileged children receive gifts and learn about the true Gift, along with their parents. In 2025, the campaign led more than 18 000 people to Christ! Pray for the organisers and ask that the Lord will bless FEBC Thailand's "Give with Love" campaign with even more abundant fruit this year.

Monday 30 November: FEBA Radio SA serves as a support office for 12 radio stations in Mozambique, Malawi, Chad, Niger, Mali, and Sudan. The team has faced several challenges this year, but the Lord has also blessed our efforts. Please pray for the FEBA Radio SA team's health and for unflagging energy as we approach the year's end.
